

Clemson Sandhill Farmers Market

It's Farm Day!

The Sandhill Farmers Market officially celebrates those that provide for our daily sustenance. As the bumper sticker says, "No Farmers, No Food". Come visit with us this Tuesday and view some of the modern and old farm equipment, meet a few farm animals and maybe take a fun hayride.

The fall crops have started and this recent cold snap will help release the sugars in those freshly picked greens.

Market hours will be somewhat reduced as a result of the time change, so you might want to plan to arrive a little earlier.

Now is the time to start placing those special requests with our vendors for baked goods, craft items and special food orders for your holidays. You and your guests deserve the very best. Don't delay and end up left out.

Thank You Westwood High School

The Haunt at Sandhill wrapped up this weekend. Even though November 1 had to be cancelled due to the weather, we had a great event enjoyed by hundreds from the Northeast community and by visitors from as far away as Antigua, New York and a group of 50 exchange students from China.

The Drama Department of Westwood HS, under the direction of Dr. Anne Richardson, did an amazing job of taking on all of the acting roles necessary to make the Haunt come alive.

We would also like to thank those students from Spring Valley HS that volunteered in logistics and the members of the Kiwanis Club of Columbia NE that aided in our admission and concession sales.

Thank you all!

Support Your Local Farmers Markets

While we hope to see you every Tuesday afternoon during the season there are other Farmers Markets in the area which need your support.

You will find many of our vendors at these fine markets as well.

Wednesday: Blythewood Market at Doko Meadows, 4:00-7:00PM

Thursday: Lake Carolina at their Town Center, 4:30-7:30PM

Saturday: Kershaw Market in Camden, 8AM-Noon

Home and Garden Tips

Holiday Decorating With Fresh Greenery

The Home and Garden Information Center at Clemson University has a number of helpful ideas to decorate your home for the upcoming season. What follows is just a snippet of that information. Click here to read the entire article.

Decorating the house with fresh greenery is one of the oldest winter holiday traditions. Evergreens have been a part of winter festivals since ancient times. Evergreens are used to represent everlasting life and hope for the return of spring.

Southerners have been decorating with greenery since colonial days, although the custom was not common in the Northern United States until the 1800s. Churches were decorated elaborately with garlands of holly, ivy, mountain laurel and mistletoe hung from the roof, the walls, the pews, pulpit and sometimes the altar. Lavender, rose petals and herbs such as rosemary and bay were scattered for scent. Homes were decorated in a simpler fashion with greenery and boughs in the window frames and holly sprigs stuck to the glass with wax.

Today, decorating for the holidays with fresh greenery is more prevalent than ever. Greenery such as cedar, ivy, pine and holly add a fresh look and natural scent to our homes.

Listing of 2014 Farmers Market Vendors

The Sandhill Farmers Market is fortunate to have the participation of so many quality vendors. Their selections run the gamut from fresh produce, fruits, seafood, wood crafts, fabric crafts, baked good, plants, shrubbery, natural personal care products, prepared foods and more. Some vendors are with us for the entire 30 week season, some for half of the season and others on a week to week basis. Following you will find a listing of the hard working entrepreneurs waiting to greet you. All of those in bold italics and red have links built in. Please note that not all vendors are able to participate in every market.
